Negroes Again Pull Night of Riot in Jersey

By DAVE MAZZARELLA

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Bands of young Negroes, hurling gasoline bombs, bricks and bottles at policemen, surged through Jersey City streets again Monday night in a riot that left two Negroes shot and 16 other persons injured.

Police arrested seven Negroes on disorderly persons charges, bringing to 20 the number of arrests since the fighting broke out Sunday night.

Early today, the hit-and-run bands retreated from the streets, but more than 100 policemen still patrolled a wide area of the predominantly Negro section in the southern part of the city.

Windows in a score of stores were smashed and some businesses looted in the latest outbreak.

At a midnight press conference more than three hours after the riot began, Mayor Thomas J. Whelan said he believed the violence had "passed its peak."

But he reiterated his warning: "We will use all the force and power at our disposal to see that law and order is maintained."

He said he was prepared to sit down with civil rights leaders "anytime anywhere," but the first problem was maintaining order.

Whelan said the situation in Jersey City, across the Hudson River from New York City, was one of "hooliganism versus law and order." The city has 275,000 residents, 17 per cent of whom are Negroes.

The two Negroes who were shot and an unidentified white man who was reportedly dragged from his truck and stabbed by Negroes were the only injured persons detained at the Jersey City Medical Center. All three were reported in good condition.

The Negroes were identified as Louis Mitchell, in his early 20s, and John Dudley, 21. Mitchell had a wound in his neck and shoulder and Dudley suffered a flesh wound on his forearm.

Authorities said they could not determine immediately how they had been shot.

Pastures Critical in Texas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Crops and pastures were in the critical stage in Texas today as the long, dry hot spell continued.

In other areas, stifling heat and choking humidity added up to high temperature records for the date.

Municipal water supplies dwindled in parts of Texas and Louisiana. The only spots escaping the long dry spell and the blistering hot weather were around the Texas coastal bend.

Wichita, Kan., reported a high temperature of 108 degrees for a record for Aug. 3. Chicago also experienced the hottest Aug. 3 on record with an average temperature of 87 degrees. Chicago's high of 98 equalled the record for the date set Aug. 3, 1944.

The mercury climbed to 110 degrees in Hutchinson, Kan., and Hennessey, Okla., as the central part of the nation remained in the grip of the heat wave.

New high temperature records for Aug. 3 included: St. Louis, 104; Springfield, Mo., 102; Louisville, Ky., 101; Grand Rapids, Mich., 100, and Muskegon, Mich., 99.

Not all the records were high ones. A low of 55 set a record for Aug. 4 in Philadelphia. Connecticut had a record low of 49, compared with the old mark of 51 in 1956.

An isolated tornado touched down Monday at Elgin, Ill., northwest of Chicago, and Logansport, Ind., was swept by wind-driven rain measuring 1.90 inches. Brazil, in west-central Indiana, was hit by large hail heavy rain and strong winds. High winds and heavy rain blew down tents at the Randolph County 4-H grounds in east-central Indiana.

More seasonable conditions prevail today in the Northeast, the extreme North and the northwestern parts of the nation, while precipitation was heavy in the east-central section.

How a Couple of Vegetables Beat the Heat

IN THIS 100-DEGREE HEAT THE VEGETABLES seem to be doing better than mere humans. Here are a couple of addies to prove the point:

AT LEFT — A STALK OF CORN RISES majestically from the scorched pavement at the northwest corner of the Ninth and Elm Sts. intersection. The editor figured one of the neighbors was secretly watering it to sustain it. In the grim battle against drought — but the neighbors at Ninth and Elm deny this — they say the corn is strictly on its own.

joining Julian Hosen's Texaco service station on E. Third St. is an old hand in battling the drought, now being several years old. This is known as "the bean catalpa," according to Billy Dan Jones, top man in Hope Star's shop; and the beans have been smoked by small boys in lieu of tobacco, so George (Boots) Smith, Jr., Star pressman adds. Boots clinched the argument by displaying a "bean" he plucked from the above tree while the cameraman had his back turned.

THE CAMERAMAN, BEING ORIGINALLY FROM THE North, was neutral, his experience with off-brand "smokes" being limited to corn silk. However, his guess is that catalpa "beans" don't taste any less vile.

Baugh Can Look Back on a Starring Career That Has Few Parallels in Filmland

By HAL BOYLE

NE WYOR K(AP) — "I've seen them all come and go, and I'm still hanging around," cheerfully remarked Spangler Arlington Brugh, the famous movie star, who will be 53 Wednesday.

"I feel pretty good about life. There's nothing much that bugs me. I've always successfully avoided anything that bored me too much."

"I've always just been a guy who tried to keep my nose clean, do my job and avoid conflict as much as possible. I've tried to do things that would make me happy and not hurt others."

"The only thing I worry about is what's my next picture going to be."

Tanned, blueeyed and still strikingly handsome, Spangler Arlington Brugh can look back on a career that has few if any parallels in filmland.

As a bo back in Beatrice, Neb., he wanted to be a doctor like his father. As a youth he lugged a battered cello to California and hoped to become a musician.

But a talent scout saw him in a college play and he went to work for MGM in 1934 at $35 a week. He stayed there 26 years, the longest period any top star has ever worked for any one studio.

And Spangler Arlington Brugh did become a top star.

He was mobbed by crowds of up to 5,000 people. A news magazine once described him as "the most admired matinee idol since the late Rudolph Valentino."

One poll in 1936 rated him as more popular than Clark Gable. His weekly salary climbed that year to $3,000, his weekly fan mail to 7,000 letters.

A list of the leading ladies he played opposite makes a roll call of Hollywood's most beautiful stars, past and present.

In 30 years Spangler Arlington Brugh earned millions of dollars, appeared in nearly 70 films and starred in a television series.

During all that time he avoided public scandals, was well-liked by his fellow workers — and never won an Academy Award. Today he and his second wife, actress Ursula Thiess, live quietly with their two young children on a 113-acre farm near Beverly Hills where they are raising 17 quarter horses, 52 hens and two roosters.

"We're not trying to corner the poultry market," he said. "We do like outdoor life, and we're not very socially inclined."

Looking back across the years, he said he felt most grateful to two people: MGM studio boss Louis B. Mayer who built him into a star, and to his former wife, Barbara Stanwyck.

"She had been in the theater all her life. She knew all the pitfalls an actor could run into in Hollywood," he said.

At 53, Spangler Arlington Brugh has a special reason for feeling grateful to studio tycoon Mayer.

"It was he who changed my name to Robert Taylor," he said.

Reach French Coal Miners, Rescue Starts

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP) — Nine miners trapped deep in a collapsed limestone mine for eight days were only hours from freedom today as a giant drill punched a rescue shaft through to their tiny subterranean chamber.

Mine officials said the 23-inch drill ground through the final shell of rock shortly before 1 p.m. without causing rock to fall on the men.

Workers who had labored for backbreaking hours in the rescue effort at Mt. Rivel rushed forward as the drill suddenly dropped several yards. It had been inching slowly downward in final stages of the rescue effort to avoid collapsing the ceiling of the mine chamber.

Immediately after the breakthrough, rescue workers began setting up a hoisting rig to be used to bring the men to the surface one at a time in a special metal capsule.

Rockefeller Hits Road on Campaign

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP) — Republican Winthrop Rockefeller hit the road Monday in his campaign bus, which is rigged out with most of the comforts of home, and before his tour of Dallas County ended the candidate's means of transportation conked out.

The air conditioning system in the used bus was the first to fail. It was repaired.

Then, for reasons not known, the bus stopped running altogether and Rockefeller boarded a pickup truck to complete his tour of hamlets where residents said they hadn't been visited by a candidate for major office in at least 10 years.

The bus was working fine at Fordyce, Rockefeller stopped at noon and delivered a brief speech. He said his Democratic opponent, Gov. Orval E. Faubus, had not kept promises to pave country roads.

About 200 persons lined the sidewalk in the shade of trees across the street while Rockefeller spoke in the noonday sun from his bus, which was parked in front of the Fordyce Post Office.

Sara Jo Fendley, 22, of Leslie, sang a Rockefeller campaign song in the folk music vein, with accompaniment from Earl McKeever, a Camden businessman who plays the guitar. Miss Fendley, 1958 National Strawberry Queen, is a past state secretary of the Young Republican League of Arkansas and frequently sings at folk festivals in the state.

Rockefeller made stops at Farnidale, Carthage, Tulip, Princeton, Manning, Dalark, Sparkman, Pine Grove and Holy Springs.

After his speech at Fordyce he went through the crowd shaking hands, and into stores where he introduced himself to clerks and customers.

One farmer said, "He seems like an old country boy to me."

U.S. Workers to Get Fatter Pay Checks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Practically all of Uncle Sam's employees — from Congress members to postmen and servicemen — are assured of fatter pay checks.

Congress approved Monday, and President Johnson is expected to sign quickly, a $207 million pay raise for the military.

And Senate and House conferees reached agreement on a $556 million increase for the 1.7 million classified civil service and postal workers, and top government officials, Congress members and federal judges.

The House plans to act today on the civil pay bill, which carries annual raises of $7,500 for congressmen and $10,000 for Cabinet officials. The Senate was expected to act later in the day or Wednesday.

The increases for the armed forces, to take effect the first of next month, will be their second in a year as part of the new policy of reviewing servicemen's pay scales every year.

The House Armed Services Committee told the House it had omitted boosts for draftees and newly enlisted men because they are in training status and because they will receive three or four increases in their first 11 months of service due to promotions.

The pay bill agreed on by Senate and House conferees would be retroactive to the first pay period after July 1 for all but the members of Congress and high-level congressional employees. They must wait until next January for their raises.

The President has strongly backed this measure, contending it is essential to retain key personnel in government.

The bill carries these annual increases:

$8,000 for the vice president and speaker of the House, which would raise them to $43,000.

$7,500 for members of Congress, to $30,000.

$10,000 for Cabinet officers, to $35,000.

Up to $7,000 for other government executives, with a scale of $26,000 to $30,000.

$4,500 for the nine Supreme Court justices, to $40,000 for the chief justice and $39,500 for the others, and $7,500 for all other federal judges, including a scale of $30,000 for district judges and $33,000 for those on the Court of Appeals.

An average 4.3 per cent for $11 million classified workers, with a range of 2.7 to 22.5 per cent. The top level in civil service would go from $20,000 to $24,500.

An average of 5.6 per cent for 600,000 postal employees.

Curious Coincidences
Some time ago, this column commented on the fact that every president of the U.S. elected in a year with a zero for a terminal figure, beginning with William Henry Harrison who was elected in 1840, had died in office. There was Lincoln, elected in 1860; Garfield, elected in 1880; McKinley, elected in 1900; Harding elected in 1920; Franklin D. Roosevelt, elected in 1940, and John F. Kennedy, elected in 1960.

But a lady named Aileen Adams, in a letter to the editor of the Corpus Christi Caller has come up with a series of coincidences which sets up an amazing 100-year cycle that is too interesting to go unnoticed.

Here is the lady's letter:

More U.S. Ships Ordered Into Viet Nam Area

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the wake of President Johnson's order beefing up U.S. naval forces off Communist North Viet Nam, the giant U.S. aircraft carrier Constellation and three other American warships set sail from Hong Kong today.

A U.S. spokesman in Hong Kong said the four ships left according to schedule. He declined to give their destination or to say if the move was connected with Johnson's announcement that followed Sunday's attack on the U.S. destroyer Maddox by three North Vietnamese torpedo boats.

In advance of the departure of the four vessels, shore leave was canceled for officers and crew, and the ships apparently were placed on alert.

Besides the Constellation, they included the guided missile frigate Gridley, and the destroyers Preston and Fechteler.

Meanwhile, U.S. officials here were watching to see if the Sunday attack was an isolated incident or part of a hazardous new Communist strategy.

They said it was difficult to determine whether the sudden attack Sunday, which left one of the three Red boats burning, was an accident, misjudgment or a deliberate provocation.

If similar Red assaults are launched, bolstered American naval units in the Gulf of Tonkin were prepared to carry out President Johnson's orders to destroy any attacking force.

The President announced to newsmen Monday his shoot-to-kill orders to the Navy. Previously orders had been for the naval units to defend themselves but not necessarily to destroy the attacker.

In Sunday's clash, the Navy disclosed Monday, the destroyer Maddox scored a direct hit on one of the PT boats with a five-inch gun. The Communist craft later was strafed by aircraft from the carrier U.S.S. Ticonderoga and left burning in the water. The Maddox was not damaged and no American sailors were hurt.

Tree Cutters Routed by Housewives

ELMONT, N.Y. (AP)—Housewives pushing baby carriages have routed the tree choppers in the first skirmish over the shade trees of Evans Avenue.

Town officials of this Long Island community want to widen the streets, lined with oaks and elms that stand between the sidewalks and the pavement.

The women of Elmont, many of them refugees from the concrete canyons of New York City, want to preserve the greenery. They moved out in force Monday.

Mrs. Charles Spanier stationed herself under a condemned tree, looked up at a workman and said:

"If you cut off one more branch, you'll have to drop it on my head to get rid of it."

The workman climbed down. Pushing their infants in front of them, a dozen housewives led by Mrs. Hope Fox surrounded a truck that was to haul away the dismembered trees. They clogged Evans Avenue and, after an hour, forced the workmen to give up for the day.

Town officials were not available for comment.

"I have nothing against drainage pipes or new curbing," said Mrs. Fox. "It's just that we moved out to the suburbs because we like the country atmosphere, which is rapidly disappearing."

"This whole thing started months ago, when we first heard that the streets in a 22-block area south of the Hempstead Turnpike were going to be widened."

"We understood then that some of the trees would have to go, but there would be enough room between the sidewalk and the curb to plant new ones if we wanted to. But when the man came around last Friday to mark the trees that were to be cut, he marked all but four in the whole area and told us that the curbs would be right next to the sidewalk."

dence with the death of another great man, President Lincoln. I thought maybe your readers would be interested.

Both presidents were concerned with civil rights. Lincoln was elected in 1860 and Kennedy in 1960. Both were slain on Friday, in the presence of their wives. Their successors, both of whom were named Johnson, were Southerners, Democrats and had served in the U.S. Senate. Andrew Johnson was born in 1808 and Lyndon Johnson in 1908.

The assassin, John Wilkes Booth, was born in 1839 and Lee Harvey Oswald in 1939. Both Booth and Oswald were Southerners favoring unpopular causes. Both slayers of booth and Oswald (Watson Carboth and Jack Ruby) murdered assassins before their trials, and in a public place.

Both presidents lost children through death in the White House and both Presidents were shot in the head.

Mr. Lincoln's secretary was named Mrs. Kennedy and Mr. Kennedy's secretary was named Mrs. Lincoln.

Remarkable, isn't it?

Johnson Has Dropped If About Plans

By DOUGLAS E. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson dropped the "if" in talking of his own presidential nomination when he dropped Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and some others as vice presidential possibilities. So—

It can be accepted now, in case there was any doubt, that come September President Johnson probably will be out pounding the campaign trail for President Johnson, all around the country, by plane, train, helicopter and motorcade.

Johnson may not acknowledge this, or even know it for sure yet. Some of his lieutenants think he may want to turn over the bulk of the campaigning to his running mate. They suggest the President might touch base in most of the big cities and the states with big votes, but on political sorties of a couple or three days.

The spirit of the old political firehorse may prevail, however, once the campaign goes into gear.

By tradition, Democrats start the campaign going at an appearance of their presidential nominee at a Labor Day Rally in Detroit's Cadillac Square. When Johnson was in Detroit in June he said that "if events work out, I'll be there."

The President hasn't ridden a train since he became president. This may change.

California Democrats reportedly want Johnson out there at least twice before election day. It's a big, long state, with a big electoral vote, and one of the classic campaign routes is by special train down the valleys.

In 1960, Johnson got in some effective licks from the back porch of a train tooting through the South. The son of the Confederacy may want to go back again, with his folks' stories about the kinfolk plus another appeal "not as a Southerner to Southerners but as an American to Americans" — as he put it four years ago.

The Democrats are going to hit hard in the Midwest. Some areas there, such as "Little Egypt," in southern Illinois, can be worked easily by train and car.

In any event, Johnson may campaign in half the states or more. He says, "I expect to appear in various parts of the country."

It looks as if he won't debate Republican nominee Barry Goldwater on television.

Parts of the South look shaky, but Johnson isn't writing off any region.

He counts on prosperity as the top vote getting issue, an issue that may help offset some of a "white backlash" against racial demonstrations.

He says he will talk about all the issues, "foreign policy is an appropriate subject."

"Most campaigns are rough campaigns," Johnson says. "This one probably will be no exception."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Come fall, it will be Mickey Rooney against Dick Van Dyke.

If television has a boot hill, it is network time periods opposite hit shows.

Perfectly good programs often die from lack of attention. Last season's victims included "The Judy Garland Show," "The Bonanza," and NBC's "Espionage," which never had a chance against CBS' "Beverly Hillsbillies."

This season ABC proposed to toss the veteran Rooney into the ratings battle against the top-rated "The Dick Van Dyke Show."

Rooney, the pint-sized David in the fight, appears unconcerned about what could be an eight-ball position. His "Mick" series centers about a family, the usual husband, wife and two children, who inherit a resort hotel.

A Hollywood film studio is a place where the real blends with the unreal and imagination merges with practicality so often and so well that it is hard to tell where one leaves off and the other begins.

At 20th Century-Fox, for instance, they have constructed permanent outdoor sets for ABC's new "Peyton Place," in an area containing the studio's commissary, fire department and other work-a-day buildings.

The commissary has been dressed up with a sign and will be used as the Peyton Place Hotel. The fire department building has been transformed into the "Peyton Place Fire Department."

Scientists Set for More Exploration

By RALPH DIGHTON

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Jet Propulsion Laboratory scientists, equipped with 4,316 close-up photographs of the moon, are thinking eagerly of the next major step in man's exploration of the lunar landscape.

It is the Surveyor, a soft-landing spacecraft with cameras that may function on the lunar surface for up to 30 days.

Two more Rangers are scheduled to be launched early next year. Plans call for them to have missions identical to picture-snapping Ranger 7.

Later next year the U. S. Space Agency will fire the first of seven Surveyors, which are three times heavier than the Rangers and have shock absorber legs.

The 800-pound Ranger 7 photographed craters as small as three feet in diameter before it crashed on the moon Friday.

The 2,300-pound Surveyor will be able to take pictures of objects the size of pinheads.

A shot in the arm for Surveyor's designers: A study of Ranger photographs indicates no major changes will be necessary in the planned model.

Surveyor's tripod legs should be able to survive a landing on terrain similar to Ranger's impact area — a crater-pocked plain in the Sea of Clouds.

Surveyor program manager W.E. Gibson says "we will use many of Ranger's technical people as they come off jobs such as testing and design, with the idea of cross-fertilization between the two projects."

"But we're already well along: We've been working on Surveyor since 1960 and we're quite proud of being able to anticipate some of Ranger's findings."

Ranger's pictures indicate the moon has a hard crust covered with a thin layer of dust. Gibson believes Surveyor's pad-footed, 6-foot-long legs can settle down on such a surface with no damage to its scientific instruments.

Ranger was designed to crash into the moon and it did. Surveyor has a retro-rocket to break its descent and let it fall free to the surface from a height of no more than 10 or 15 feet.

Once it lands, its two television cameras should be able to swing full circle and up and down, giving earth scientists a "you are there" picture of the Surveyor also will have a claw on an extendable arm to pick up objects as far away as 10 feet and lift them up to the stereoscopic television eyes for three-dimensional scrutiny.

Heart of Surveyor's soft-landing system is a 10,000-pound thrust, solid-fuel retro-rocket that will be turned on 60 miles from the moon.

This will slow Surveyor's 9,000-foot-per-second speed to 450-foot-per-second in less than a minute. By the time Surveyor has fallen to about 15 feet above the surface three small liquid-fuel rockets should cut the speed to zero.

Surveyor will drop the rest of the way at about the speed of a parachutist hitting the earth.

With its legs straddled for landing, Surveyor will stand 13 feet tall and its base, a big fuel tank, will be supported some 18 inches above the foot pads.

partiment officials believe the PT boat sank. A reconnaissance flight over the area, in international waters 30 miles off North Viet Nam, found no trace of the craft.

Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, top U.S. military commander in the Pacific, said today, "The last time we saw it, it was in flames. I don't know if it sank but the chances are pretty good it did." He said there were no North Vietnamese casualties "that we know of, but there is no way of telling."

The State Department described the engagement as an "unprovoked attack" and said it was sending a protest to the Communist North Vietnamese government.

Department spokesmen rejected North Vietnamese charges that American planes and ships had attacked its territory in recent days.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara traveled to Capitol Hill to bring senate leaders up to date on the developments.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh asserted today the United States should take "firm steps" against Communist North Viet Nam in the wake of an attack by three North Vietnamese torpedo boats on a U.S. destroyer.

Khanh did not outline to newsmen at a cocktail party what he thought these steps should be. But he declared:

"The United States must take a firm course so that North Viet Nam knows it is not a paper tiger."

Khanh recent weeks has been a proponent of taking

Says Castro Had Hand in Violence

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former Cuban President Manuel Urrutia has accused Fidel Castro of having a hand in racial violence in the United States.

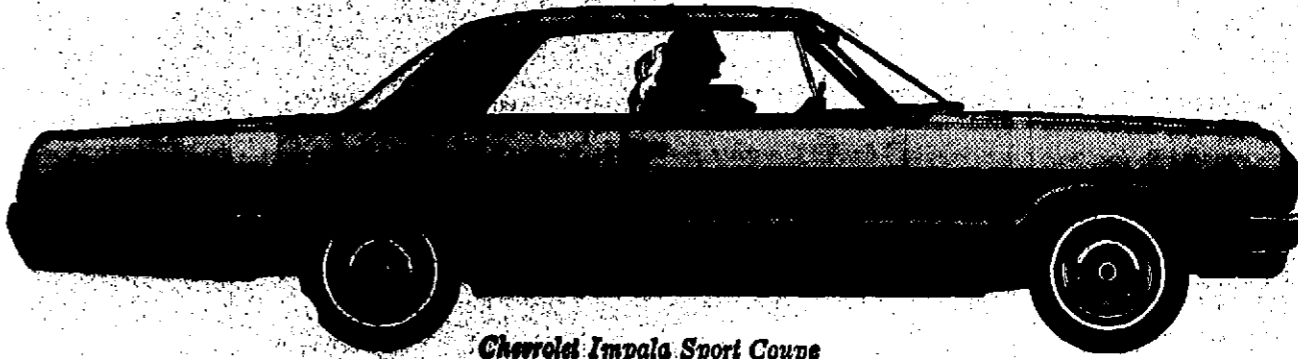

Urrutia, Castro's first chief executive, said Monday in an interview that the Cuban dictator "has from the start of his rule shown an interest in stirring up American Negroes."

"Now he maintains a regular English language broadcast from Havana designed to incite American Negroes to rebellion," he said.

Urrutia referred to "Radio Free Dixie," a broadcast by Robert Williams, Negro from Monroe, N.C., who fled to Cuba after being indicted on a kidnapping charge stemming from racial trouble.

Urrutia, who broke with Castro in 1960, announced plans to form a new anti-Castro party, to be called "Fighting Democratic Unity."

Since this is an election year, poll-taking is the Nation's favorite sport. Perhaps Dr. George Gallup will be remembered as the most famous in this line of work.

Some time ago, he revealed some of his many interesting facts about the typical American. To quote a few . . . 56 percent of the American people believe in God, 78 percent believe in the existence of life after death, half go to church and one-third say grace before meals.

Six-tenths of the men prefer brunettes, three-tenths prefer blondes and one-tenth, redheads. Married men are happier than bachelors. Most men oppose the idea of a woman being president. The typical American woman is five feet, four inches tall, weighs 132 pounds, swims and walks for exercise, plays cards for fun, thinks she eats too much, and would like to have the word "obey" striken from the marriage ceremony.

To the typical American woman, a husband's most important qualities are . . . kindness, good temper and consideration. . . . But, above all she would like to have him compliment her AFTER marriage as he did before!

Well, now girls, this is interesting, and we at Raley's would like to help you with this compliment-getting. . . .

Next time your husband unexpectedly asks you to go with him on a business or pleasure trip, don't you dare say, "I have nothing to wear." Instead, you come forth in that wrinkle-free Briny Marlin knit suit . . . and just listen to the compliments!

We have them in sizes from 8 to 20, in two- and three-piece styles, and colors . . . you have never seen anything so beautiful! We can't begin to describe them all here, BUT . . . we invite you to see them, to try on and to choose. . . . TODAY! We have the perfect hat and other accessories. The place is Raley's Style Shoppe, Hope's House of Fashion.

"SNOW WHITE AND THE 3 STOOGES"

Two Credited With Easing Cuban Crisis

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Soviet messages relayed by an American newsman and a Soviet agent helped score a breakthrough in the darkest hours of the Cuban missile crisis, according to a former U.S. intelligence official.

Roger Hilsman, State Department intelligence chief at the time of the October 1962 confrontation, discloses in an article for the Aug. 25 issue of Look magazine that American Broadcasting Company correspondent John A. Scali was the American in the unofficial communications link.

The Russian was identified only as "Mr. X," a senior Soviet official who headed Soviet intelligence in the United States. Other sources said "Mr. X" since has left the Russian embassy here.

Hilsman, now teaching at Columbia University, reported: By Friday, Oct. 26, of the fateful week, the nuclear antagonists were eyeball-to-eyeball. President Kennedy had demanded a pullout of the Soviet missiles from Cuba and ordered a naval blockade. The Kremlin had publicly rejected Kennedy's proclamation. Some Soviet ships at sea had altered course, but the missile site building in Cuba was continuing full speed.

Mr. X, one of Scali's news contacts at the Soviet embassy, telephoned the correspondent asking for an immediate luncheon date. Over a luncheon table in a downtown restaurant he quickly got to the point.

The Russian asked Scali to find out at once from his friends in the State Department whether the U.S. government would be interested in a solution to the crisis in which the Soviets removed the missiles; they allowed U.N. inspectors to supervise the pullout; they pledged not to reintroduce the missiles and America publicly pledged not to invade Cuba.

Scali promptly reported this to Hilsman and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Rusk said this was the first direct word that the Soviets might be thinking of a deal.

Rusk asked Scali to tell Mr. X that the U.S. government "sees real possibilities" in the proposition and to suggest that government representatives could work the matter out at the United Nations. "Time is very urgent," Rusk emphasized.

While Scali was relaying this word to Mr. X in a coffee shop that evening, a secret cable from Soviet Premier Khrushchev to Kennedy also indicating a willingness to negotiate was arriving at the White House.

The next day the Kremlin reversed its line and broadcast a Khrushchev note reneging on its proposals of the night before. Rusk asked Scali to see Mr. X again to find out what happened. The Soviet official had changed his tune, too. Scali accused him of a "stinking double cross" and said the United States was absolutely determined to get the missiles out of Cuba.

Democratic Ladies in State Organize

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Robbie Lively of North Little Rock was named today as chairman of the "Arkansas Ladies for Johnson."

The appointment was announced by Mrs. Jack Carnes, Democratic national committee-woman for Arkansas.

Mrs. Lively has long been active in the Democratic Party and she is a delegate to the Democratic National Convention which is expected to nominate President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Reduction in Surplus of Cotton Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Agriculture Department raised the prospect today that the U.S. reserve and surplus of cotton may be reduced by between 700,000 and 1 million bales during the 1964-crop marketing season ending next July 31.

The report forecast domestic and export demand at 14.8 million bales, up 700,000 bales from the 1963-crop season sales. While no official estimate of this year's crop will be until Aug. 10, unofficial forecasts range from 13.8 to 14.1 million bales.

Thus, the crop would be less than the anticipated demand. The deficit would be supplied from reserve and surplus stocks totaling about 12.2 million bales accumulated from past crops. Much of this cotton is stored under farm price support programs.

The department forecast domestic requirements for the 1964 year at 9.6 million bales, an increase of 1.1 million over those of the past season.

Exports were projected at 5.2 million bales, down 400,000 from the past season.

The present reserve and surplus supply is the largest since 1956.

Battle to Draw

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — Welterweights Dick French of Providence, R.I., and Grey Gavin of New York fought to a draw Monday night in a 10 rounder at Sargent Field. Both weighed 150.

Lafayette County is the smallest Arkansas county with just 525 square miles.

Cuba

Again the Russian presumably sent back word to the Kremlin while Kennedy was making a formal public reply to the Friday proposition.

Sunday morning Khrushchev announced he had ordered the offensive arms withdrawn. The eventual settlement followed much of the formula set forth in the first Scali-Mr. X meeting.

That evening with the back of the crisis broken, Mr. X met Scali for the last time. "The information you supplied," he told the newsman, "was very valuable to the chairman in helping him make up his mind quickly."

Scali was an Associated Press newsman before joining ABC in 1962 prior to the missile showdown.

"DEAR ABBY"

OUTSIDE HELP IS NEEDED

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: What do you do with a grandmother who believes that the people on television can see and hear her? We have tried to explain to her that they can't—that it's only a talking picture, but it doesn't do any good. She gets all dolled up to watch television every day because she says she would hate to have Art Linkletter see her looking a fright. How can we convince her she's wrong?

SUE AND CINDY

Dear Girls: Why try? Besides, ask Art Linkletter. I'll bet he thinks she looks real nice!

NOT SURE

Dear Abby: A few months ago my husband and my best friend came to me and confessed that they had had an affair, but it was all over. They said they told me in order to cleanse their consciences. The woman is also married and the four of us had been friendly for years. As I look back now I realize that she cultivated my friendship so she could get next to my husband. She even used the children. I told my husband that I would forgive him, and I have really tried, Abby, but the hurt is so deep I don't think I'll ever get over it. I now refuse to be in this woman's company, but my husband says there is no reason why we can't all be friends. I get sick when I see her car on the street. Was I wrong to end our friendship or not?

WRONGED

Dear Wronged: You were right to end the friendship, and your husband is lucky you didn't choose to end the marriage as well. Stick to your guns!

Dear Abby: My bridge club

(two tables) met at my house last week. One of the members brought along an out-of-town guest who was visiting her. This guest presented me with a one-pound box of candy. I thanked her for it, and then I set it on the piano. I intentionally did not open the box because the candy would have been eaten up in no time by the other women. The next day one of the women called me up and told me that several of the members had severely criticized me for not opening the candy, and offering it to the ladies. Did I commit a social error, or not?

Dear Not: Unless the woman who brought the candy indicated it was for the club, you had a right to assume it was for you alone. You committed no social error by not opening the candy, but since you didn't intend to serve it, you'd have been wise to put it out of sight.

Confidential To "The Woman Who Wrote A Volume": Of course I've heard only YOUR side of it, but if only half of what you wrote is true, you are married to the most selfish, egotistical hypocrite who ever drew a breath. I rarely say a case is hopeless, but it would take a miracle to straighten him out.

SHORT RIBS

A Short Short Story © 1964 by NEA, Inc. THE STRONGMAN

By Steve April

Two men came busting out of the factory side entrance, ran like mad in opposite directions. The shorter one dashed across the avenue, out of my sight in the twilight. The other staggered—ran down the block toward me, carrying a small canvas sack. His face was very white and his free hand was pressed to a red spot on the side of his jacket.

My dog was sniffing a lamp post and I ducked behind it as I saw a guard come out of the building, pistol in hand, take off after the shorter guy.

I knew what I was witnessing. This was Friday night, and the factory payroll had been robbed. A factory that large would have a payroll of at least 25 grand.

The guy with the bag passed without seeing me. Turning the corner, he seemed ready to keel over as he looked about wildly. He stopped, felt of his side where he'd been shot, then suddenly heaved the canvas bag behind some trash cans in an alley entrance—near a closed hardware store.

He crossed the street and tried to walk, casual-like. Seconds later a radio car came screaming down his side of the street. The guy started to run. A cop leaped out and cracked him

Bailey's Bingle Entered in Star's Vacation Photo Contest

Drops Giants in Standings

By MIKE RATHNET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Bailey, highly touted youngster who dragged through a poor rookie season under the pressure of a whopping bonus, is beginning to pay dividends.

A $150,000 bonus baby who batted a dismal .228 last season, Bailey continued his heavy hitting Monday night by slamming a key triple in the eighth inning and a game-winning single in the ninth that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The two hits lifted Bailey's average to .304 and boosted the Pirates into third place in the tight National League pennant struggle, 4½ games behind the front-running Philadelphia Phillies and 2½ lengths behind the Giants.

A vital offensive weapon in the Pirates' bid to duplicate their 1930 pennant, Bailey has always spoken freely about the pressure applied by the gigantic bonus and his meager accomplishments as a rookie last year when the Pirates nosedived to eighth place.

Bailey's key hits dropped the Giants two games behind the Phillies, who were rained out of a game against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Only two other games were scheduled, both in the American League. Baltimore rode Milt Pappas' shutout pitching to a 7-0 victory over the Los Angeles Angels and to within one percentage point of the first-place New York Yankees. And Cleveland defeated Washington 4-2.

Jose Pagan was involved in both San Francisco runs as the Giants built a 2-0 lead. He beat out a bunt in the fifth inning and eventually scored on Duke Snider's single. In the sixth he drove in Tom Haller, who had doubled, with a sacrifice fly.

Bailey then got the Pirates rolling against Bob Bolin, who had a five-hit shutout through seven innings. After Manny Mota stroked a pinch-hit double with one out in the eighth, Bailey slammed his triple and came home with the tying run on Bill Virdon's single.

In the ninth, after Bill Mazerowski and Dick Schofield had singled, Bailey came up with two out and poked a grounder up the middle for the clincher.

Pappas, bringing his record to 10-5, blanked the Angels on eight hits and did not follow a runner past second base. While he was shutting out Los Angeles for the third time this season, the Orioles pounded Bo Belinsky and four successors for 13 hits.

Dick Brown collected three hits for Baltimore while Brooks Robinson and Sam Bowens each drove in two runs with a pair of hits.

The Indians broke a 2-2 tie against the Senators in the fourth when Chico Salmon doubled, Vic Davallillo beat out a infield hit and Billy Moran followed with a sacrifice fly. Da-

Aussie Bad Boys Back in Full Grace

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, tagged with a "bad boy" label by the Australian tennis brass, now are back in favor; solidly, thoroughly and completely back in the good graces.

Winning does it.

The duo swept Mexico's best 4-1 in Davis Cup American Zone semifinals Monday and have only two more steps to take before meeting the United States in the Challenge Round, climax to the Aussies' drive to recapture the cup they had considered private property until the U.S. upset last year.

Emerson and Stolle, among the player suspended by Australia after they had booted a tourney there to play abroad,

Field Goal Important in Grid Contest

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—During the College All-Star drills when big strong men battered each other in preparation for Friday night's game against the Chicago Bears, one big, strong man played a relatively lonely role.

Dick Van Raaphorst of Ohio State took no part in the muscle vs. muscle scrimmages. If it hadn't been for his football uniform, Van Raaphorst would have appeared to be a stranger to the practice sessions.

Over and over again Van Raaphorst practiced what he does best—kicking field goals. And if the All-Stars defeat the Bears in Soldier Field, the booting Buckeye might provide the margin of victory.

Van Raaphorst, a 21-year-old 6-1 220 pounder, was one of the top field goal kickers in college ranks last season. He set a Big Ten record with six goals in conference competition and eight for the year. He boots them long and he boots them short.

Because of the tremendous defense the Bears are expected to throw at the All-Stars, Van Raaphorst should have plenty of chances to try his specialty.

The All-Stars will find the going rough when they get into Bear territory and the Bears' secondary has no intention of allowing All-Star quarterbacks to throw touchdown bombs. More often than not, Van Raaphorst will be called upon to attempt field goals.

If the big guy is reasonably successful, he could provide the All-Stars with the necessary points to upset the Bears.

Thank You . . .

. . . My friends in the Fourth District.

It was a heart-warming experience to have your vote of confidence last Tuesday. When a man has served his neighbors as long as I have, he appreciates such an expression of friendship and approval.

I assure you that I shall continue to work in Washington to represent the Fourth District, as well as all of Arkansas, to the best of my ability.

Ruth joins me in thanking you for your support.

dictated by customer demand, the number of colors has been reduced, which facilitates easier and less expensive production, handling, installation, and maintenance.
